

Michael Joos is an active geospatial professional with more than 30 years of industry experience. Through his involvement with ASPRS since 1987, he has served profession in a variety of ways including multiple terms as a Board Member for the Eastern Great Lakes and Florida Regions, participating on the National Conference Planning Committee, presenting and moderating at numerous conferences and maintaining certification as a Certified Photogrammetrist and GIS Professional. He is deeply passionate about family and enjoys motorcycling and other outdoor activities with his wife, Heather. Michael is the Director of Business Development with T3 Global Strategies in Pittsburgh, PA.