

John Antalovich, Jr. has been working in aerial photogrammetry for over 35 years with Kucera International, Inc., including the past 20 years as Kucera's President. He is a licensed Professional Engineer and Surveyor and holds a BS degree in Civil/Environmental Engineering and an MBA in Management Information Systems. He has been active in the ASPRS and MAPPS organizations and currently serves as co-chairman of the MAPPS Aerial Acquisition subcommittee.