Volume XLIX

August 1983

Number 8

COVER PHOTO.—Pioneering New Frontiers in Surveying and Mapping" will be the theme of the 1983 Fall ACSM-ASP Convention to be held in beautiful Salt Lake City September 19–23, 1983. This photo, taken at an altitude of 1,000 feet, shows a typical late spring view looking south east over the city. Some of the early pioneers to Salt Lake City were surveyors whose efforts in planning the city are shown to this day in the straight streets laid out on a perfect grid pattern.
